Trade Show Call

May 29, 2023 – Akwesasne, ON

Representatives of the First Nations Education Administrators Association invite you to apply for the tradeshow for the National Gathering in Winnipeg on November 8-9, 2023. This is an opportunity for you to reach First Nations schools and communities who invest heavily in education services, supplies programs, etc. across Canada.

The National Gathering provides an opportunity to network, share education best practices, and give voice to invaluable insights and perspectives regarding Indigenous Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, and Math. First Nations Directors of Education, principals, teachers, educators, Indigenous Institutes and partners in First Nations education are invited to join and take part in FNEAA's National Gathering Conference.

First Nations Education Administrators Association (FNEAA) is a national organization incorporated on February 6, 2019. FNEAA is a gathering place for First Nations education administrators. It is a place to network, a place for training, education, professional development, and a place to establish standards and best practices.
